Committee business (6:15-6:30)

6:15

Finalizing and approval of committee letter providing advice to the city regarding PBOT's ongoing projects supporting bike buses on neighborhood greenways.

SE Hawthorne and Clay Street Off-Ramp (6:30-7:00)

6:30

This intersection, at which people bicycling proceed straight (east) while people driving turn right (south) has seen multiple iterations of designs to address the inherent conflict. Multnomah County and the Portland Bureau of Transportation are now working on ways to further address this intersection. The County-City team will describe results of a field visit to the site, present options being considered, and seek feedback from the committee.

Northwest Diverter Removal (7:00-7:30)

7:00

Several traffic diverters in NW Portland—on NW Johnson at 14th and 15th and on NW 20th at Everett—are slated to be removed at the request of the Public Environment Management Office (PEMO). Anne Hill, Director at PEMO will present the agency's reasons for the removal.
